

Woodward & Lothrop

New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

Store Will Close at 12 o'clock Noon, Saturday, Memorial Day.

Chinaware, Glassware, Housefurnishings, and Pure Food

For the Summer Cottage.

SPECIAL effort has been made to assemble the best of new and staple merchandise—to eliminate the undesirable items—and place before you only those which we believe to be worthy of your purchase. So many new, useful, time-saving, and labor-saving devices are constantly being received that we feel confident a visit to this vast fifth floor Housefurnishing Store of ours will amply repay the time expended.

Summer Cottage

Dinner Sets.

100-piece English Porcelain Dinner Sets, in dark or light blue Old Willow pattern...	$12.00
100-piece English Porcelain Dinner Sets, in dark blue Togo pattern...	$13.75
100-piece English Porcelain Dinner Sets, in light blue Oriental pattern...	$18.00
100-piece Dark Blue Doulton Ware Dinner Sets...	$18.75

These sets are also sold in Open Stock, from which you can select just the pieces you want without paying for those that are of no use to you.

Decorated Toilet Sets

for the Summer Home.

Special attention is invited to our comprehensive exhibition of Toilet Sets, complete with covered slop jar, at $5.00 per set.

Other sets from $3.75 each upward.

Thin Cup and

Saucer Special.

We offer a lot of thin blue Japanese China Tea Cups and Saucers, in assorted patterns and in the popular ovate shape, at the special price, 15c per cup and saucer.

English China Bread and Butter Plate Special.

Attention is invited to a lot of Decorated English Bone China Bread and Butter Plates, which are offered at the special price, 25c each.

The New Magnolia

Pattern Cut Glass Bowl.

We invite attention to the 8-inch Cut Glass Fruit or Salad Bowl, in the new magnolia pattern, which is unusually brilliant and well cut.

$5.00 each.

Attention is also directed to the Gift Glassware grouped separately, among which will be found a large variety of choice pieces.

$2.75, $3.95, and $5.00 each.

Glassware.

A complete line of Summer Cottage Glassware, including the highly desirable plain Old Colonial patterns, which, while inexpensive, are of such excellent quality and finish as to be worthy of a place in the finest service.

Old Colonial Table Tumblers, Dozen...	40c and up
Old Colonial Berry Bowls, Each...	15c and up
Old Colonial Water Pitchers, Each...	25c and up
Old Colonial Fruit Dishes, Each...	40c and up
Old Colonial Iced Tea Glasses, Dozen...	85c and up
Old Colonial Focled Sherbet Glasses, Dozen...	75c and up

Moth-fighting

Materials.

Manah's Tarino Sheets, large, Dozen...	50c
Manah's Moth Bags, medium, Each...	40c
Manah's Moth Bags, large, Each...	50c
Manah's Moth Bags, extra large, Each...	65c
Moth Balls, package...	15c
"Oriental" Crystallized Camphor, Package...	18c
Cedar of Lebanon Camphor, Package...	10c
Crystalline Camphor, Package...	7c
Sulphur Candles, Each...	5c
Sulphur Candles, large size, Each...	10c

Dahlias.

Large Double Dahlias; rooted. 15c each; 2 for 25c. Fifth floor.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Miss Oliver Becomes Bride of Frederick K. Stevens.

NOTED COMPANY AT WEDDING

Guests include President and Mrs. Roosevelt, Secretary of War and Mrs. Taft, other Cabinet Members, and Members of the Diplomatic Corps—Beautiful Presents Received.

Miss Elizabeth Shaw Oliver, daughter of the Assistant Secretary of War, Gen. Robert Shaw Oliver, and Mrs. Oliver, was married at noon yesterday to Mr. Frederick K. Stevens, son of Mr. Alexander H. Stevens, of New York.

The ceremony was performed in the home of the bride's parents, 1733 N street northwest, by Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, in the presence of the most distinguished company possible in this country.

It included the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, the Secretary of War and Mrs. Taft, the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Garfield, the British Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce, the Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Newberry, and the members of the families of the contracting parties.

A floral bower was arranged for the little bride to stand under, and a white satin priedieu decked with white peonies and green vines and a standard of American Beauties at either end was set immediately beneath it for them to kneel before.

The bride entered the drawing-room with her father, who gave her to marriage. The bridegroom and his brother, as best man, Mr. Eben Stevens, awaited them under the bower. The bride's gown was heavy cream satin completely covered with rare old point lace, the yoke and sleeves being unlined. The front panel of the skirt was outlined with orange blossom satin, and the back with point lace veil. A superb diamond necklace with pendant of diamonds and pearls was her only ornament. She carried a white-bowdler prayer-book instead of flowers. Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast, at which all the guests were seated, was served.

Among the many splendid gifts were a set of the President's Inauguration, the "Theodore Roosevelt," and a set of valuable books from Mrs. Roosevelt. Another highly prized gift was a handsome silver tea service from Mrs. Starkweather, the bride's godmother, who was the wife of Bishop Starkey. The service was a gift from Mrs. Starkweather's father to herself at her own wedding, and is very rich and heavy.

After the breakfast, the bride and bridegroom left for a trip North. They will spend some time in the summer home of the bride's parents in Canada. Mrs. Stevens is accompanied by her father, Mr. Stevens, traveling down was of dark blue silk, with blue hat.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Choate, Jr., brother-in-law and sister of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Murray, uncle and aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Alexander H. Stevens, parents, sister, and brother of the groom; Mr. Francis O. Byrd, all of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Byram Stevens, also of New York.

Miss Stevens is one of the cleverest and most gifted girls in society, both here and in New York. She is the author of many bright and clever short stories of Canadian life and of many other interesting sketches. She is an intimate friend of the bride, Col. William Brewster, former Ambassador from Great Britain to this country, and visited her at her home last year. She has also been the frequent guest of her sister, Mrs. Choate, when Mr. Choate was first secretary of the United States Embassy in London, while his father was Ambassador there, and she has been presented at court. Her future home will be in New York.

Miss Mary Brewster, daughter of Capt. A. W. Brewster, U. S. A., and Mrs. Brewster, will be married to Mr. Donald Caselle on June 17, in this city. Miss Brewster is a debutante of last year, and one of the most distinguished of that year. She is a granddaughter of the late Attorney General Brewster, famous in President Arthur's Cabinet, not only for the brilliance of his mind, but for his ruffled shirt bosoms, which were like a peep into a former generation.

The wedding of Miss Brewster and Mr. Caselle will be a small one, owing to the mourning of the family of the bridegroom-elect for his father, Hon. John Caselle, who died a few months ago.

Mrs. Taft, wife of the Secretary of War, who returned Saturday night with her daughter from the graduation exercises of the latter's school, will be the guest of honor at a bridge party to be given in Annapolis by Mrs. Fitzsimmons, wife of Dr. Fitzsimmons, U. S. N., on Friday, at the Grand Hotel, Washington.

The wedding of Miss Brewster and Mr. Caselle will be a small one, owing to the mourning of the family of the bridegroom-elect for his father, Hon. John Caselle, who died a few months ago.

Mrs. Bancroft, Mrs. Daugherty, and Miss Newton spent the week-end at Annapolis, returning to Washington on Monday. They went down for the Saturday night hop and attended the dedication of the new chapel of the Naval Academy on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Russell-Joseph chaperoned a party of schoolgirls, and Miss Eberly and Miss Williams were also there over Sunday.

Miss Janet Richards will leave Washington to-morrow for New York and sail Saturday on the Kronland for Antwerp. She will be accompanied by Miss Carr. They will go at once to Amsterdam, where Miss Richards will attend, as a delegate, the International Alliance of Women, which will meet June 15. They will spend the month of July in England to attend the Olympic games, and in London and witness the historic pageants, which will be most elaborate and for which great preparations are now being made. They will afterward visit Geneva, the chateau country of France and Switzerland, the Italian lake region and Venice, and sail from Naples for home, arriving late in October. Miss Richards expects to glean much of interest and value for her talks of next season, which will be held in Rochester's.

Mrs. Sydney A. Cloman, wife of the military attaché of the United States Embassy in London, who was formerly Mrs. Victor Clement, of this city, entertained at a charming and exclusive party last Saturday for Mrs. Herbert Shipman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, of this city and Tuxedo. Mrs. Shipman is being beautifully and constantly entertained in London. Mrs. Cloman's party was given at Ranelagh, just out of London.

A great banquet has been arranged for the retiring Ambassador from the United States to Germany, Mr. Charlesmagne Tower, in Berlin next week by the committee of the American Chamber of Commerce in Berlin. It will be given in the Hotel Adlon, and covers will be laid for more than 200 guests. The dinner is expected to be one of the most important of the kind ever given in Berlin.

On the afternoon of June 2 Mrs. Tower will be the guest of honor at a farewell reception at the American Woman's Club, of which she was formerly the president. An address on "The voice of nature," which is being prepared to present to Mrs. Tower.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brown Potter, the latter formerly the beautiful Miss May Handley, of Richmond, well known in Washington society, have arrived in Paris after a continental tour, and will remain there several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lehr, the former formerly the beautiful Miss May Handley, of Richmond, well known in Washington society, have arrived in Paris after a continental tour, and will remain there several weeks.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

delegates, the International Alliance of Women, which will meet June 15. They will spend the month of July in England to attend the Olympic games, and in London and witness the historic pageants, which will be most elaborate and for which great preparations are now being made. They will afterward visit Geneva, the chateau country of France and Switzerland, the Italian lake region and Venice, and sail from Naples for home, arriving late in October. Miss Richards expects to glean much of interest and value for her talks of next season, which will be held in Rochester's.

Mrs. Sydney A. Cloman, wife of the military attaché of the United States Embassy in London, who was formerly Mrs. Victor Clement, of this city, entertained at a charming and exclusive party last Saturday for Mrs. Herbert Shipman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, of this city and Tuxedo. Mrs. Shipman is being beautifully and constantly entertained in London. Mrs. Cloman's party was given at Ranelagh, just out of London.

A great banquet has been arranged for the retiring Ambassador from the United States to Germany, Mr. Charlesmagne Tower, in Berlin next week by the committee of the American Chamber of Commerce in Berlin. It will be given in the Hotel Adlon, and covers will be laid for more than 200 guests. The dinner is expected to be one of the most important of the kind ever given in Berlin.

On the afternoon of June 2 Mrs. Tower will be the guest of honor at a farewell reception at the American Woman's Club, of which she was formerly the president. An address on "The voice of nature," which is being prepared to present to Mrs. Tower.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brown Potter, the latter formerly the beautiful Miss May Handley, of Richmond, well known in Washington society, have arrived in Paris after a continental tour, and will remain there several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lehr, the former formerly the beautiful Miss May Handley, of Richmond, well known in Washington society, have arrived in Paris after a continental tour, and will remain there several weeks.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is so pleasantly remembered in Washington society for the three months she spent here two years ago, is occupying her country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson. She has almost a continuous house party there, but this spring is entertaining them more quietly than usual.

GOULD LINCOLN WINS

Beats Cake in Middle Atlantic Tennis Tourney.

VISITORS CAPTURE SINGLES

Lincoln-Cake Match Only One Carried to the Last Set—Dels Wins Clean-cut Victory Over James, of Philadelphia, by Making Strong Finish—Doubles Prove Interesting.

With the less expert players eliminated in the first round and the survivors for the most part in their best form, the second round in the singles of the Middle Atlantic States tennis tournament yesterday was marked by faster and steadier play than Monday's sets.

A player who showed rare form in both the singles and the doubles was J. Paret, of New York, who had an easy time with H. C. Bridges in the singles, winning 6-2, 6-3.

The surprise of the afternoon was sprung when G. G. Lincoln, a well-known local player, who has not been in good condition this spring, defeated the Veteran Cake, who ranked fourth on the line-up of the city team, and was generally expected to run down close to the finish. Lincoln, however, played a steadier game from the start, finishing ahead by 7-5, 3-6, 6-3.

Among the notable victories of local talent over the large number of out-of-town entrants was J. H. Dels' clean-cut defeat of R. L. James, of Philadelphia. The visitor had his opponent 6-2 in the second set, but Dels came back with a flourish, capturing the match by winning seven straight, and totaling 6-3, 7-5. Both men gave a masterly exhibition of net playing, and formed the center of attraction for the spectators.

R. W. Hills a Winner. Gilbert Kelly, contrary to expectations, after his performance the day before against H. C. Sheridan, failed to survive the second round. R. W. Hills, who, like Kelly, is a left-handed player, won the match, 6-4, 6-4.

Four of the matches in the first round were played off yesterday. The results follow: H. C. Bridges beat R. Mason, 6-0, 7-5; J. Mullin beat F. Hyatt, 8-6, 6-0; and W. C. Hill won from W. P. Cresson by default.

The results of the other matches in the second round were: J. Mullin beat W. B. Wood, 8-6, 6-1; J. H. Ballenger beat W. C. Hill, 6-4, 6-4; and J. C. Davidson beat J. P. Roman, 6-2, 6-3. The striking feature of the singles was the ease with which the victors won in nearly every case. The only match carried to the last set was that between Lincoln and Cake.

Atkins, a Philadelphia player, who has a long string of victories to his credit, playing with Parkes, of New York, found a tough proposition in Duval and Graves, in the doubles. The former won out largely on "loving," which marked their play in all sets.

One of the prettiest exhibitions of the afternoon was furnished by the team work of J. P. Paret and J. C. Davidson, who beat Whitlock and Graves, 6-3, 6-1. The playing was fast and in these two matches that Parkes and Atkins were able to meet Wood and Parten, their opponents, in the third bracket. The former again won this time, by 6-0, 6-1. Paret and Davidson could easily have completed their third round but for a delay between games.

Kelly Shows Form. Kelly showed to great advantage in the doubles than in the singles. Playing with Ballinger, he beat Down and Cresson, 6-1, 6-4.

From the form shown so far, it looks as if either Johnson and Glazebrook, winners in the doubles on Monday, or Paret and Davidson would survive in the final, which will be played on Saturday.

Davidson could easily have completed their third round but for a delay between games.

Playing will be begun to-day in the consolation rounds of the singles, and regular play in both this round and the regular doubles and singles will start at 2:30 o'clock. Players failing to report at that time will be declared losers by default.

Seldom before has a tennis tourney in this city attracted such a representative list of players. The entries include players from North Carolina, Norfolk, Richmond, Va., Philadelphia, Germantown, New York, and Princeton University. The presence of so many cracks has served to eliminate the entries of many of the local players.

From North Carolina, Norfolk, Richmond, Va., Philadelphia, Germantown, New York, and Princeton University. The presence of so many cracks has served to eliminate the entries of many of the local players.

From North Carolina, Norfolk, Richmond, Va., Philadelphia, Germantown, New York, and Princeton University. The presence of so many cracks has served to eliminate the entries of many of the local players.

From North Carolina, Norfolk, Richmond, Va., Philadelphia, Germantown, New York, and Princeton University. The presence of so many cracks has served to eliminate the entries of many of the local players.

From North Carolina, Norfolk, Richmond, Va., Philadelphia, Germantown, New York, and Princeton University. The presence of so many cracks has served to eliminate the entries of many of the local players.